TOPICS OF DISCUSSION

NEWSLETTER

- A huge thanks to Penny and Kirby for the informative Fall newsletter. The Barbecue announcement graces the front page.
- With Penny moving out of the neighborhood, the board is in need of someone to do future newsletters.

WESTWOOD PARK - Steering Committee

- A followup meeting took place at Kirby's house on August 3rd. Steve Lampon from the Parks Department attended. Jimmi Loesing had handouts summarizing the comments and votes from the July 9th neighborhood meeting at the Plaza Library. There was discussion about having the next meeting involve neighborhood architects and designers for input on the park shelters and overall design.

BARBECUE / SILENT AUCTION - SEPTEMBER 10 - Chuck

- Board members are asked to solicit items for the silent auction. Kirby had a list of potential business donors that could contribute a gift certificate or donation.
- Everyone on the board is asked to contribute a favorite wine to the wine basket.
- 5:30 auction begins, 6:30 dinner served, 7:30 auction closes.
- Chuck has again invited the ever popular Smokey Mountain BBQ caterers. Entertainment will be the same musicians as last year. Chuck will order a port-a-potty, and possibly a tent if the weather forecast indicates rain.
- Adults $13, Children $8, and children under 5 are free. Neighbors are invited to attend for free if they are not interested in eating. The board wants to encourage people to mingle and to participate in the silent auction.
- The firetrucks and firemen will be invited again.
- And new for this year, a special appearance by a certified balloon artist. Fun for kids and adults!

PROBLEM PROPERTIES

- The owners of the rat house recently had a hearing. Kirby will contact Stephanie Bowman for an update.

-A property on Westwood Terrace is continuing to be a neighborhood eyesore with neglected, overgrown gardens.
