St. Luke's South gift shop needs volunteers

Westmonter Margaret Dack donates every Thursday evening and other mornings and afternoons to working at St. Luke's South (123rd St. and Metcalf) Auxiliary Gift Shop. The shop is a non-profit whose efforts benefit patients and their families, hospital and staff, and several charitable foundations. "I like it a lot because it's close and very nice ladies volunteer there for a worthy cause," says Margaret. "They could use more help. If interested call Pam Sauter at 317-7894."

Dog poop reminder

Most of you are considerate, a few aren't. If your dog needs to poop while being walked, have them use the grassy area near the curb and pick it up there—not from a neighbor's yard where your dog shouldn't be allowed to roam or use as their own bathroom in the first place. While this may seem a minor issue it can be a major irritant for those whose lawns are affected. Per city rules, dogs must be on leash and their droppings picked up. Thanks for your help.
